Hi OUTWORDS friends,

Just a quick reminder that this event is tomorrow, on Wednesday, May 12, at 5pm Pacific Time (8pm Eastern):

Intersección: The Latinx LGBTQ Artist Experience in Los Angeles

Event is free & open to the public; register on Zoom at: bit.ly/outwordsart

Intersección is a virtual panel with LA-based artists, sharing on the intersectionality of their personal experiences being Latinx and LGBTQ in the Los Angeles art scene for the last 40 years.

Presented by The Outwords Archive with panelists:

- Louis Jacinto, Mexican-American photographer documenting Los Angeles subcultures.
- Odalys Nanin, Cuban-American founder of MACHA Theatre (Mujeres Advancing Culture, History & Art).
- Joey Terrill, pioneer of queer Chicano visual art and second-generation native of East Los Angeles.
- Moderated by Andrea Pino-Silva, digital movement architect and OUTWORDS board member.

This panel discussion was made possible with funding by the City of Los Angeles Department of Cultural Affairs.

We'd love to see you there! Register on Zoom at: bit.ly/outwordsart

Looking forward,
