GIVINGTUESDAY

Dear OUTWORDS friends,

One week from today, December 1, is #GivingTuesday, a global day of generosity. We're proud to serve you by preserving LGBTQ+ history, one interview at a time, and hope you will keep us in mind during this celebration of giving.

In particular, we would like to highlight the option to become a sustaining supporter, by signing up for a recurring donation. Recurring donations are exponentially more valuable to us, as they help us predict cash flow from month to month, and year to year. Please consider this option — and know that we are grateful for any contribution you are moved to offer. To donate, just click the blue button!

HERE AND NOW: HIV/AIDS Activists Speak Out

Tuesday, December 1, at 5pm Pacific Time/8pm Eastern Time

Event is free & open to the public; register on Zoom at: bit.ly/aidsdaypanel

As a new virus sweeps the globe in 2020, 38 million people worldwide continue to live with HIV. On this World AIDS Day, join us as six activists from across the US come together to speak on the daring and creative ways they confronted HIV/AIDS, parallels between HIV and COVID, stigma then vs. stigma now, and the challenges facing HIV/AIDS activists as we prepare to welcome a new administration.

Moderated by Jason Walker, Senior Coordinator of Grassroots Advocacy for Health GAP

Panelists:

Juan-Manuel Alonso, Artist Living with HIV

Elia Chino, Founder/Executive Director, Fundación Latinoamericana de Acción Social

James Credle, Decorated Veteran, Retired Dean, Rutgers University

Sharon Day, Founder/Executive Director, Indigenous People's Task Force
Doc Duhon, Energy Expert Living with HIV
Eric Sawyer, Co-Founder, ACT UP

PLEASE NOTE: If you can't attend the live webinar, please register anyway, and we'll be sure to send you the recorded webinar afterwards.

Kind regards,
